Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

The Courage to be Happy

I love what Pope Francis wrote in preparation for World Youth Day 2016 which took place in Krakow, Poland. The Holy Father addresses young people, but his words speak to all of us. Drawing from the Beatitudes, the text for this Sunday's Gospel, the Pope makes the connection between "blessedness" and "happiness." Here's what he wrote:

What does it mean to be "blessed" (makarioi in Greek)? To be blessed means to be happy. Tell me: Do you really want to be happy? In an age when we are constantly being enticed by vain and empty illusions of happiness, we risk settling for less and "thinking small" when it come to the meaning of life. Think big instead! Open your hearts! As Blessed Piergiorgio Frassati once said, "To live without faith, to have no heritage to uphold, to fail to struggle constantly to defend the truth: this is not living. It is scraping by. We should never just scrape by, but really live" (Letter to I. Bonini, 27 February 1925). In his homily on the day of Piergiorgio Frassati's beatification (20 May 1990), John Paul II called him "a man of the Beatitudes" (AAS 82 [1990], 1518).

If you are really open to the deepest aspirations of your hearts, you will realize that you possess an unquenchable thirst for happiness, and this will allow you to expose and reject the "low cost" offers and approaches all around you. When we look only for success, pleasure and possessions, and we turn these into idols, we may well have moments of exhilaration, an illusory sense of satisfaction, but ultimately we become enslaved, never satisfied, always looking for more. It is a tragic thing to see a young person who "has everything", but is weary and weak.

Saint John, writing to young people, told them: "You are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one" (1 Jn 2:14). Young people who choose Christ are strong: they are fed by his word and they do not need to 'stuff themselves' with other things! Have the courage to swim against the tide. Have the courage to be truly happy! Say no to an ephemeral, superficial and throwaway culture, a culture that assumes that you are incapable of taking on responsibility and facing the great challenges of life!

Blessed are we who seek the happiness that comes from a life in Christ!

Monsignor Rob

ALL WOMEN ARE INVITED

Please join us on Thursday, February 9th for 9:00 am Mass in the Church celebrated by Rev. David W. Franklin.

Brunch will follow in Stapleton Hall with guest speaker, Dr. Joan Kelly, Professor of Catholic Studies, Sacred Heart University.

Dr. Kelly will make a presentation on The Catholic Woman Through The Ages. She will explore women in the history of the church starting with the New Testament up through more contemporary times. We will ponder the women who remained faithful to Jesus at the foot of the cross as well as women from more modern times, such as Elizabeth Ann Seton and Katharine Drexel. Our vast network of Catholic Schools and Hospitals is a huge testament to the profound impact and role of women in the church in the United States.

If you have questions, call Susan Staudt (203) 984-0557.

CAMPAIGN

We Stand with Christ Campaign and Project for Saint Aloysius

Total of Pledges as of January 18:	$14.9 Million
Campaign Goal:	$26 Million
Number of Donors:	204
Campaign End Date:	We will gladly accept gifts through March 2023!

Thank you to those who have pledged! We need everyone – no matter what the gift – to reach our goal! We are extending the campaign to allow for those who asked me about donating in February or March. Allison McCarthy (amccarthy@starcc.com) can help with any questions, including memorials or other naming opportunities. And remember that pledges can be made over a five-year period. Please visit our parish website to learn more about this exciting project. Thank you for prayerfully considering a generous pledge! And please pray for the success of our efforts: that we may do all of this for the greater glory of God.

Construction update: the new, smaller, and efficient boiler for the church should be delivered in about a week; it will be fueled by natural gas. Yesterday we began digging to determine the feasibility for geothermal heating and air conditioning in an effort to make the project as "green" as possible. We had our first go at the Planning and Zoning Commission. We were placed at the end of the agenda and the bulk of our presentation took place after midnight – certainly not an optimum time slot. We learned a lot about what the town is expecting from us, we will be able to comply; and when we appear before the board again on February 28, we will have much more detail and plenty to say about why the parish and the town will benefit from our campus plan. I would appreciate it if you would let the Planning and Zoning Commission know that you support our project – send your letters and emails to them, please!

STEPHEN MINISTRY

At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. The name for this ministry comes from St. Stephen, the first deacon chosen to assist the Apostles in their ministry fulfilling Our Lord's mission to care for those most in need of God's love. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Fr. David at frdavid@starcc.com.
