Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

We Need to Be the Body of Christ

As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?"

You have the words of eternal life.

We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

For some of the disciples, Jesus's discourse on the "Bread of Life" was just too difficult to hear. To the Jewish authorities, Jesus's bold claim to be "flesh for the life of the world" was understood as a threat to their own authority. To those who were struggling with accepting Jesus as the Messiah, understanding that the flesh of Jesus is "true food" and His blood "true drink," is impossible. But to Peter and those who continue on as followers of Jesus, they understand that it's all about eternal life. Our life in Jesus, our sharing in the Eucharist - truly His Body and Blood - gives us life because it is food for this amazing, challenging journey we are on. When we receive Jesus in Holy Communion, He becomes a part of our very being, and we have all that we need to be fully alive - now and forever.

Peter and the faithful followers know that they need the "words of eternal life" and they need to be in relationship with Jesus who is "the Holy One of God." As wavering as Peter can be in other scenes of the Gospel, he is unwavering in this moment when he confesses that Jesus is God and is the way to eternal life. As we approach the Lord in Holy Communion this weekend, let us remember that we are in the presence of the "Holy One of God" who invites us to become what we receive. As we walk back to our seats after receiving Him, may we understand that we bear Christ in our body so that we may go out and feed the world with the hope that comes from the Body of Christ.

Yours in Christ - the Bread of Life,

Msgr. Rob

ARE YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW INTERESTED IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, OCIA, is an awakening to Christ and seeking out the Catholic Church that comes about in a variety of ways. The first step for some is a sense that "something is missing", that there is more to life than what they now have. For many others, the journey begins because of a relationship with a Catholic - a close friend or spouse. Some were baptized Catholic but did not receive any other sacraments. Still, others are drawn by seeing the example of a Catholic life well lived.

The OCIA process is a series of carefully planned stages, marked by liturgical rites, in which those who are interested in becoming full Catholics join us in a continuing and deepening conversion into faith and discipleship. It takes the spiritual needs of each person into account. At the Easter Vigil Mass, candidates will receive those sacraments of initiation that they need - Baptism, the Eucharist, and Confirmation.

In mid-September, our parish will begin weekly OCIA sessions in an open and welcoming environment. These gatherings are open to people who are unbaptized as well as those who are baptized Christians from Protestant or Evangelical backgrounds.

Please contact Deacon Bill Santulli at 203-940-0711 or santulliw@starcc.com if you have questions or would like further information.

MSGR. ROB'S RENOVATION AND BUILDING PROJECT UPDATE

A lot has happened since my last update message. Here's the summary:

- Saint Aloysius Catholic Preschool will launch in September 2025! It will welcome children from the ages of 2 to 5. Watch for more information about how to contact the school for information.
- The school building and chapel are moving along on schedule. The plan is to have the exterior complete before winter so that interior work can be carried out to meet the September 2025 opening deadline.
- The Preschool building will also be utilized by religious education students and parish ministries. It will be great to have the space back!
- Take a look at the time-lapse camera show on the website; you will see how quickly everything is going up! <https://starcc.com/building-campaign/>
- The vesting area in the church will also serve as a quiet room for families, a bride's room, and there is space for the Music Office. My apologies for limited access to the narthex during that construction. Rest rooms are always available from the inside doors.
- Once the vesting area is complete, work will begin on the other side of the narthex where we will install three new restrooms. During that construction, a restroom will be available in the vesting area.
- Our plans to expand each confessional were thwarted by the discovery of a structure that prevents us from expanding. We will provide more light and paint the confessionals before Christmas.
- We continue to raise the remaining funds needed (approximately $4million) and have meetings with prospective donors in the next few weeks. If you haven't made your pledge, please consider doing so before the end of September. I am hopeful that the rising structures are getting everyone excited for the future of our growing parish. I'm always available to talk with anyone about the project (frrob@starcc.com).

Thanks to all who are making this transformation possible, and please pray that we will raise the remaining funds and stay on schedule.

Our Lady's Guild

We have a VERY exciting year planned! Please see our upcoming calendar on the Parish website!!

Our first meeting is Thursday, September 12th - The Most Holy Name of Mary. We begin with Mass at 9AM - Celebrated by Father Franklin, followed by the Rosary. Moving to Stapleton Hall by 10AM for brunch and our guest speaker:

Rev. Christopher J. Ford
Vocations Director for Diocese of Bridgeport and Pastor of Notre Dame Church, Easton, CT

All are welcome!

The purpose of Our Lady's Guild is to promote devotion to the Blessed Mother, thus deepening our faith and drawing us closer to her son.

Membership form can be found online (<https://tinyurl.com/OLG24-25>) or paid at the door.
Annual dues: $35 pays for brunch and speakers.

Invite Our Blessed Mother in YOUR home

Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. She asked them to tell the world to pray the Rosary for world peace. Her request is as important now as it was then. The beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius in 2005 and has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione, (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.

8th Annual Community Addiction Awareness Vigil

Thursday, August 29th, 7 pm 6 South Ave, New Canaan

 At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.
