Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

How to Get Into Heaven

*Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him,
"You are lacking in one thing.
Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."
At that statement his face fell,
and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.*

I am struck each time I read the parable of the rich young man at how attentive Jesus is to this soul who walks away sad because "he had many possessions": "Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing." Imagine Jesus looking into our eyes and loving us because he knows that is just what we need. Imagine Jesus knowing that we like to take control, remain independent, and collect things that make us "happy"; and despite all of that, He still looks at us, loves us and is hopeful. Imagine Jesus saying to us, "Don't be afraid to be helpless because with me you are strongest when you are weak."

Now imagine running toward Jesus and saying to him, "I now know what love is. I have recognized the poor, I have loved them like you love me, I have given them what they need, and I have come to ask if you will please hold me and love me forever!"

I think Heaven-on-earth is surrendering to Jesus everything that isn't His and giving it away to those who don't have anything. I think Heaven is living that freedom while looking into Jesus' loving eyes. Let's say our prayers so we can get there.

Monsignor Rob

P.S. Please pray the Rosary this month for peace in the world!

HURRICANE RELIEF COLLECTION

In light of the devastating effects of the recent storms in the southern part of our country, Bishop Caggiano has asked that we take up a special collection at the Masses this weekend. The funds will be forwarded to Catholic Charities USA, the official domestic relief agency of the Catholic Church of the U.S. One hundred percent of funds received will be distributed to the disaster-stricken communities to care for our affected brothers and sisters. Checks can be made out to the parish, and please write "Hurricane Relief" on the memo line of your check. Thank you for your generosity.

Deacon Sunday

This Sunday is "Deacon Sunday." Please pray for Deacon Bill Santulli, Joanne Santulli and their family during the week. Pray also for our two parishioners in formation for the Permanent Diaconate: Michael Baber and Michael Crane and their wives and family. We are blessed because of their "yes"! Do you think God is calling you to the permanent diaconate? Reach out to Deacon Bill or one of our priests to find out more.

A Prayer for Deacons

Lord Jesus Christ, Servant of all, send your Spirit upon our deacons as they serve your Church. Give them eyes to see the needs of your people. Give them a discerning mind to know your truth. Give them a generous spirit when they are called upon to do your work on earth. Give them a sense of our gratitude even when they think their work goes unnoticed. Give them peace and joy as they serve. Give them health of body so they may serve with strength. Grant them grace as they age so they may share your wisdom. Make their hearts like yours so they may love as you have loved. Amen
