Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Fulfilled in Your Hearing

As Ordinary Time unfolds, we hear once more WHO Jesus is. He is the one who was promised in the prophecy of Isaiah to take care of the poor, the oppressed, the physically and spiritually blind, and to proclaim a new kind of freedom:

*'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.'
Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down,
and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him.
He said to them,
'Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.'*

Every time we gather to hear the word of God, every time we open the Bible and read even one sentence, we are witnesses to the reality that God keeps promises, and that in Jesus every hope we have for self and for world is fulfilled in what we hear – especially in the Gospel. As the body of Christ (see Saint Paul in the second reading for today), having been transformed in our hearing of the Word, we take what God has given us and bring the best of it to the community of believers in order to give life and love to Church. As we move forward in Ordinary Time, listen carefully to what Jesus says, watch what He does, and live what He teaches. Read the Gospel by yourself or with the ones you love BEFORE Sunday, and let it rest on you and work in you. Then hear what God in the Sacred Scripture has to say to YOU. During the week following, read again and see what happens. Repeat often.

We are sometimes poor (lacking in what we need to do what we are supposed to do for God and others); we are sometimes imprisoned (by guilt, fear, anxiety, addiction); we are sometimes unable to see (what God is giving us, especially the gift of those who are difficult to love); we are sometimes unable to notice that Jesus has come to give us a “year” (a life) of joy, freedom, hope, and unconditional love (“a year acceptable to the Lord”). Jesus brings us the true freedom we never thought we could have. Pray with Him like you’ve never prayed before, and pray with Him in the Gospel. Wait ‘til you see what you hear!

May your Ordinary Time be extraordinary!

Monsignor Rob

STEPHEN MINISTRY

At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.

Eucharistic Adoration

Invite Our Blessed Mother into YOUR home

Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. She asked them to tell the world to pray the Rosary for world peace. Her request is as important now as it was then. The beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius in 2005 and has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione, (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.
