Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

The Truth of the Trinity

Jesus speaks of the relationship between Spirit and Truth in today's Gospel on this feast of the Most Holy Trinity. If we believe in Jesus, we know what truth is because he teaches truth and is Truth itself. If we believe in Jesus, we believe in the Spirit and receive all those amazing and helpful gifts (knowledge, counsel, understanding, and more), and if we believe that we have received all of that, we see a challenging world through a helpful lens. Jesus says it plainly:

*But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,
he will guide you to all truth.*

With the gifts of the Spirit and a strong belief in Jesus, we can discern the truth and live it. When obstacles appear, when darkness rolls in, when struggles emerge, we will remember that there is hope that comes from believing in Jesus whose Father created us in love to live abundantly. When we don't know the truth about the things that happen around us, we need to ask the Spirit. Then, as Jesus says, the Spirit of the Lord, who is Truth, will lead us to all truth.

The power of believing in Jesus is echoed in the second reading today; it gives great consolation to troubled and weary souls:

*Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
through whom we have gained access by faith
to this grace in which we stand,
and we boast in hope of the glory of God.
Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions,
knowing that affliction produces endurance,
and endurance, proven character,
and proven character, hope,
and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.*

May the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit guide you to truth, and may the hope that comes from believing in the Trinity bring you joy.

Monsignor Rob

Are you, or someone you know, experiencing a difficult life situation - such as the loss of a loved one, medical crisis, divorce, family issues, job loss, or caregiving challenges? Please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister by contacting Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.

THE BUILDING CORNER

Fulfilling our Sacred Mission

As we see the education & faith center, gym, and chapel get closer to completion, we are still in need of your help to open the doors. This space is needed to bring Religious Education back home by this fall. This is a major milestone for our parish and an opportunity for every household to help make it a reality. Your participation is vital to realizing this important goal!

To bring this vision to completion, we are seeking nearly $3 million in new pledges and fulfilled gifts over the coming weeks. This next phase will require both broad parish participation and the continued generosity of those able to make leadership-level gifts.

We are deeply grateful to all those who have already pledged—your early support has made this progress possible. We are especially thankful to those who are now prayerfully considering larger commitments as we move into this final stretch. Your discernment and generosity are vital blessings to our community.

Here's how you can help:

- Make your pledge today. Your gift helps open the doors and welcome our Religious Education students and ministries this fall.
- Already pledged? Thank you! Please consider accelerating your payments or increasing your total commitment to strengthen your impact.
- Encourage others to join. With more than 500 parish households yet to participate, the opportunity to finish this campaign together is real—and within reach.

The path is clear:

- 100 pledges of $30,000 (over 3 years) = $3 million
- 60 pledges of $50,000 = $3 million
- 10 pledges of $10,000 = $100,000

Every gift matters. Every household plays a role. Whether you're making a first-time pledge or deepening your support, your generosity helps fulfill our sacred mission.

To make or update your pledge contact:
Allison McCarthy at amccarthy@starcc.com.

TEACHING & PREACHING THE GOSPEL

"Diaconate formation is the centerpiece of my life. I am studying for a master's degree in theology at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers. I pray the Liturgy of the Hours each morning on Zoom with several Deacons and a formation brother. I pray that the entire process draws all of us closer to the Lord and inspires us to use the gifts God gives us for the betterment of others."

2026 Mass Intentions

The 2026 Mass Book is now open. Please stop by the office to procure Mass intentions for 2026. We ask that you limit the total to four Masses. Candle Intentions are currently available for 2025, as well.

A Faithful Legacy, A Lasting Blessing

When you include St. Aloysius Church in your will, trust or estate planning, you're doing more than giving a gift—you're sharing your faith with generations to come. Your legacy can help nurture the spiritual lives of families, support parish ministries, youth ministries and keep Christ at the center of our community.

Planned giving is also a blessing for you. It offers peace of mind, reflects your deepest values, and may provide tax advantages for you and your loved ones.

Speak with your estate planning attorney or financial advisor—and prayerfully consider how your legacy can continue God's work here in New Canaan.

St. Aloysius Church ListenWIFI

St. Aloysius parishioners may now hear worship services inside the church amplified by easy-to-use technology called ListenWIFI. ListenWIFI is the most advanced wireless audio streaming product on the market. If you would like to boost your hearing of a service using your own iOS or Android smartphone to headphones, earbuds or digital hearing aids. Use the following instructions to connect:

1. Your first time connecting - download the ListenWIFI app on your phone from the Apple App or Google Play Store. You can do this at home before coming to church.
2. Once in the church, connect to the church wifi network by scanning the QR code posted on the walls. (Note – your phone will automatically connect to the church wifi on future visits)
3. Once connected to the wifi network, open the ListenWIFI app on your phone.
4. Connect your headphones or earbuds to your phone and press any available audio channel to begin listening.

Dr. Camosy specializes in bioethics, policy, theology, and having difficult conversations across differences. He sees his work as "an effort to create reconciliation, dialogue, and healing across thorny and knotty problems within the church, especially in bioethics."

As the author of eight books, including Losing Our Dignity, Camosy advocates for "a counter-culture of encounter and hospitality." This perspective not only seeks to welcome vulnerable populations but also encourages individuals and communities to be transformed through these interactions, aligning more closely with the teachings of Christ. His work is significant in promoting understanding and compassion in bioethical debates, making him a key voice in contemporary discussions on these critical issues.

Dr. Camosy is Professor of Medical Humanities, Creighton University School of Medicine and holds the Monsignor Curran Fellowship in Moral Theology, St. Joseph Seminary, New York.
