Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Why Ashes?

Ready or not, Lent begins this week. Our foreheads are smudged with ashes as a reminder that we should spend the 40 days working on a conversion of heart. When we make our decisions about what we may “give up” for Lent, the decision should be informed by our desire to align ourselves more closely to Christ who gave up his life for us. In his sacrifice on the Cross, it hurt Jesus to love us so much. We are not called to that same kind of sacrifice, but we are called to love. In our praying, fasting, and almsgiving, we must work on how we love God, family, the stranger, the poor, the outcast, the sick, and the suffering. In this penitential season of the Church year, we ought to stand at the foot of the Cross and look up and thank Jesus for his exquisite act of love in which our sins are forgiven, and we are forever united to a merciful Savior who walks with us in our own suffering.

At Saint Aloysius this Lent we have many opportunities to come together as a family of faith to reflect on Christ’s suffering, dying, and rising – the Paschal Mystery. Please pick up a copy of “Ashes to Easter” and join us for Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the Stations of the Cross, reflections on our life with Christ and one another, and more. Read the entire booklet before Ash Wednesday and mark those moments of prayer, service, and sacrifice in which you will participate. As a parish family, let’s make this Lent the Lent where we take our ashes seriously – as a challenge to turn our hearts closer to Christ and one another. I look forward to walking the journey with you.

Lenten blessings,

Monsignor Rob

SUPPORTING VOCATIONS: A CALL ANSWERED

From childhood Masses to mission trips in remote villages, God has been faithfully guiding Herley Mendez Torres' call to the priesthood. Through the love and encouragement of his family, parish pastors, seminary faculty, and especially the support of Bishop Caggiano, Herley has grown in faith, fraternity, and joyful service to God's people.

The seminary has transformed his life, teaching him to trust more deeply in God, strengthening his prayer, and preparing his heart to serve the Church. This vital formation is made possible through the generosity of the faithful.

Your support of the Bishop's Appeal helps form future priests, ensuring they are prepared to walk with God's people and lead them to Christ.

Thank you for supporting vocations in our diocese. Please continue to pray for Herley and for all our seminarians as they discern and respond to God's call.

SUPPORT OUR SEMINARIANS TODAY!

A Special Lenten Reflection

Join us for an inspiring Lenten presentation on the Church's call to missionary service. The talk marks the 100th Anniversary of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) —a papal agency serving some of the most vulnerable communities in the world.

Msgr. Peter Vaccari, President of CNEWA, will reflect on a century of faith in action and invite us to consider anew Christ's enduring question: "And who is my neighbor?" Luke 10:29

WEDNESDAY	FEBRUARY	Saint Aloysius Parish
	25	21 Cherry Street New Canaan, Connecticut
2026		Two presentations for your convenience 11:00 am and 7:00 pm Refreshments will be served

What You Will Experience

- 100 years of CNEWA's mission as a papal agency of healing and hope
- Support for the Eastern Catholic Churches in the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India, and Eastern Europe
- Insight into the humanitarian and pastoral challenges facing these communities today

Music Notes for the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Dr. John Michniewicz

- The Entrance Hymn, Praise the Lord, You Heavens Adore Him, connects God's universal laws governing creation with the laws for humanity, emphasizing that praise is offered through faithful adherence to God's prescribed order.
- The Presentation Hymn, This Is A Story Full of Love, characterizes Jesus as "The Keystone and the Key" who reveals "the human face of God" and is the source of wisdom that leads to "freedom, law, and love."
- The anthem, The Narrow Way, and the Communion selection, Order My Steps, are prayers that echo the Gospel's call for interior righteousness, divine guidance, and the humility required to faithfully walk the challenging path of God's will.
- Sunday's hymns and music reinforces the Gospel message that Jesus came to fulfill God's law and that the disciple's mission is the pursuit of God's reign by living out the righteousness Christ sets forth.
