Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

The Expansive Meaning of Jesus' Healing Ministry

When Jesus heals, he not only restores sight, cures leprosy, or raises up the suffering from their sickbeds. He does something truly life-giving: he brings the healed ones back into the community. In this Sunday's Gospel, blind Bartimeus and his family are ostracized from society because it is thought that some sin caused the blindness. Jesus spends a great amount of time explaining to the crowd that sin didn't cause the blindness, and that God's desire is that Bartimeus and his family have their dignity and rightful place in the community restored.

We are made for relationship, and when we are in the company of others, we are gifted with support, encouragement, and acceptance for who we are as children of God. The cure of Bartimeus reveals who Jesus is and speaks volumes about the compassionate power and love of the One who has come to heal the nations.

Today we might ask ourselves how we receive those who have physical or emotional challenges or those who are longing to be accepted, heard, respected, and befriended. Have we turned someone away who is difficult to love? Have we overlooked someone who needs our friendship? Jesus invites us to see with eyes of compassion and welcome all with love.

As we pray for peace in the world and an end to violence of every kind, we call upon Christ – who is light in darkness – to heal us with his grace and mercy.

Lenten blessings,

Monsignor Rob

March 27- 29, 2026
Holy Family Retreat Center, West Hartford

Faith is a journey! We can never know exactly where it will take us, but we are intentional about the trek, and we have hope that it will lead us to something good.

Last year, just months before his passing, Pope Francis called for a jubilee year, and he announced the theme would be "Pilgrims of Hope." The Holy Father stated: "Faith is a pilgrimage, and we on this Earth are pilgrims, not tourists or wanderers: we are pilgrims!"

Join us on our journey! Complete details here:

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

There is an old saying that our hands are God's hands. By praying for the person who will receive the shawl, we enter into a sacred journey of knitting (or crocheting) with the Holy One and our hands become instruments of God's love. People who wear prayer shawls have said they feel a contentment and peace they have never felt before. If you know someone who has a particular concern or need that words cannot fill, you may request a shawl by calling Sue at 203-940-0278.

Music Notes for the Fourth Sunday of Lent Dr. John Michniewicz

Laetare Sunday, marks a moment of joy in the middle of Lent. The readings focus on the journey from darkness to light. In the Gospel (John 9), Jesus heals the man born blind. In the First Reading (1 Samuel 16), God anoints the overlooked shepherd David, reminding us that God sees beyond outward appearances. Psalm 23 proclaims the Lord as the Shepherd who guides us through darkness into light, and Paul urges believers to move "from darkness to light" and "from sleep to wakefulness."

- In the opening hymn, Amazing Grace, the line "I once was blind, but now I see" directly echoes the healed man's words.
- Sunday's Presentation Hymn, From Ashes to the Living Font focuses on the Lenten journey and reflects the narrative of the man born blind.
- At the 11:30 Mass, the choir will sing "Open My Eyes" by K. Lee Scott, a prayer for spiritual sight.
- During Communion, the Taizé chant "Lord Jesus Christ" proclaims "your light shines within us," reinforcing the theme of darkness and light. The choir will also sing "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes."
- The final hymn, "Jesus, Lead the Way," reflects our call to follow Christ on life's spiritual journey.
