Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Living Water

I am amazed at the plethora of options for drinking water available these days, and I will confess that I have been trying out different brands in an attempt to find the one that will truly satisfy my taste and achieve a healthy hydration. I've ventured into the world of flavored, fruit-infused, ultra-filtered, straight-from-the-mountain-spring, sparkling, lightly-sweetened, distilled, purified, alkaline, and more. I've tried to balance my desire for flavor with the plain necessity of plain old H2O in order to live. To contextualize this in the current season of Lent, I can fast from food, but I must have water to survive and do a decent job of fasting and "Lenting." Biologists tell us that our bodies are made up of 60 percent water, and therefore without water, we will die.

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus meets the woman at the well. The story can be summed up this way: she seeks water, she meets Jesus of whom she has heard some marvelous things, Jesus offers her "living" water; she is surprised at how much Jesus knows about her less-than-morally-sound life, she is intrigued (not entirely convinced), yet wonders if Jesus is the Christ.

Like so many moments in the Gospel – and in our own stories – Jesus offers us life-giving water (i.e., a life of grace with Him) no matter what we are like when we show up at the well. An encounter with Christ is a moment of mercy with an offer to refresh our parched and weary souls and truly live.

May we find in our Lenten desert the water we need to walk toward Easter. May we find in our prayer, the Christ whose thirst on the Cross was never satisfied, but who offers us a flood of mercy and love so that we may live forever.

Lenten blessings,

Monsignor Rob

Young Adults United in Christ

Growing up in a deeply faith-filled family, Emma Ratnaval longed for a lifelong community rooted in Christ. After college, a simple invitation from a friend led her to a Young Adult Ministry gathering, an unexpected blessing that reconnected her with peers who desired holiness, authentic friendship, and a vibrant Catholic life.

Through choir, Bible studies, faith-sharing discussions, and joyful fellowship, Emma discovered a place where young adults pray together, support one another, and boldly live out their faith. This ministry also allowed her to share her gifts of music, leadership, and hospitality in service to God and His Church.

The Bishop's Appeal helps sustain ministries like Young Adult outreach, creating spaces where young Catholics encounter Christ, form lasting community, and grow together as One Church.

Faith is a journey! We can never know exactly where it will take us, but we are intentional about the trek, and we have hope that it will lead us to something good.

Last year, just months before his passing, Pope Francis called for a jubilee year, and he announced the theme would be "Pilgrims of Hope." The Holy Father stated: "Faith is a pilgrimage, and we on this Earth are pilgrims, not tourists or wanderers: we are pilgrims!"

St. Aloysius Church, New Canaan, CT

~ Parish News ~

Last Sunday we had three OCIA catechumens and five candidates along with their sponsors go before Bishop Caggiano for the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at St. Augustine Cathedral in Bridgeport. All OCIA participants in parishes throughout the Diocese of Bridgeport participated.

To send a catechumen or candidate to the bishop means that a parish and their sponsors have discerned that the person is ready to enter the Catholic Church and receive the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. This was done 2 weeks ago through the Rite of Sending at St. A's.

Since late September, they have been attending weekly formation classes to help them understand and experience the teachings and practices of the Catholic Church. We all participate in their formation through witness, support and prayer. We ask you to please pray for them as they continue their journey.

Our catechumens - DJ, Abby, and Karen are shown here with Bishop Caggiano. They will be Baptized, Confirmed and receive Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil.

Music Notes for the Third Sunday of Lent Dr. John Michniewicz

The music for the Third Sunday in Lent reflects themes of water, thirst, forgiveness, and God's mercy, echoing the Gospel story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman at the well.

- The readings, especially Exodus 17:3-7 and John 4:5-42, establish the image of water as both a physical necessity and a symbol of spiritual longing and the "living water" offered by Christ.
- Sunday's Hymns: "There's A Wideness in God's Mercy" and "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" reinforce the theme of God's grace and invitation, given to all regardless of stature or worthiness, to find life in Jesus.
- The Presentation Anthem, Herbert Howells' Like As the Hart, and the Communion response, Let All Who Thirst Come Unto Me, musically express the soul's intense longing for God, mirroring the thirst for "living water."
- The Communion Meditation, Elaine Hagenberg's O Love, and the Final Hymn, "How Can I Keep From Singing?," conclude the service by reflecting on the idea of God's everlasting love and the resulting assurance that leads a believer to share their faith.
