Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Education and Faith Center Update

It's been a while since I provided a report on our construction progress, and I am happy to share the news that the Education and Faith Center, the St. Carlo Acutis Chapel, and the "Parish Green" will be completed by May 31st! More than 600 families shared their treasure to realize the transformation of our campus and create beautiful space for worship, learning, recreation, and fellowship. Each of you will receive my personal thanks in a matter of days.

Here's a detailed report on the project:

The Education and Faith Center will be home to the Saint Aloysius Catholic Preschool, St. Aloysius Parish Religious Education, Pack 45 and Troop 45 Scouts, and many parish ministries. The building is beautifully appointed, bright, inviting, and contains state-of-the-art audio-visual, HVAC (including heated floors in many of the preschool classrooms), multiple data ports, and numerous safety and security features. The different classroom colors are complemented by splendid crown molding, chair rails, and plenty of bookshelves and cubbies. The restrooms in the classrooms and in the hallways are age and size-appropriate. There are so many triple-pane windows in the rooms and hallways that create a bright and open feel.

The Saint Carlo Acutis Chapel will have beautiful appointments (some are re-purposed from churches that closed in Connecticut and New York). The wainscoting on the walls and the wood beams that soar thirty feet create an inspiring, prayerful environment. Once the stained-glass windows are installed (mid-September), the chapel will be a truly splendid respite for busy visitors, a place to encounter Christ in word and sacrament for all, and a daily reminder for our children that Jesus is always near. As the chapel took shape, I imagined Mass, baptisms, weddings, wakes, and funerals in the intimate space named for a Saint who loved our Eucharistic Lord so deeply.

The Gymnasium can also serve as an auditorium and social space and will be one of the places we can accommodate worshippers when the church is too full at Christmas or Easter. The clerestory windows in the roof marry the building to the old church, and the color scheme harkens back to Saint Aloysius School days. And speaking of Saint Aloysius School, I saved every trophy and banner from the old school so we can proudly display them in the new building. There are showers and locker rooms so we can offer the Emmaus Retreat on our own property one day. The stage area provides a perfect space to hold presentations, music performances, and the preschool Christmas pageant.

The "Parish Green" will boast a sprawling lawn, a plethora of trees (yes, they have arrived and are "parked" in our lots near the church), two playgrounds, and a space for outdoor worship. Beautiful fences with stone footings will keep the area safe, and benches will provide a place for conversation, prayer, and enjoying the beauty of God's creation.

I will very soon invite you to tour the space and to come to the special Mass and Blessing of the buildings and green. In the meantime, please know how grateful I am to God, St. Aloysius, St. Carlo, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and all of you for bringing us to this glorious moment in the history of our parish.

Yours in Christ,

Monsignor Rob

FORMED BY THE WORD, SENT ON MISSION

As the Diocese continues its journey through The One, new efforts are bearing fruit in the renewal of preaching and biblical formation. The St. Jerome Center for Preaching and Biblical Studies has been established to strengthen the proclamation of God's Word and to help clergy and lay faithful grow in confidence, understanding, and faith.

Through opportunities such as participation in national conferences and ongoing formation, deacons and others are being equipped to preach with clarity and conviction, fostering deeper encounters with Christ within our parishes. This initiative is already enriching diocesan life by encouraging discipleship, evangelization, and a greater love for Sacred Scripture.

The Bishop's Appeal plays a vital role in supporting this work, helping advance The One's mission to lead all people closer to Christ through truth, beauty, and goodness.

Music Notes for 5th Sunday of Easter Dr. John Michniewicz

The Readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter center on the theme of Christ as "the way, the truth, and the life," describing Jesus as the Cornerstone. Believers are called to be "living stones" building God's spiritual house.

The entrance and presentation hymns, "The Church's One Foundation" and "How Firm a Foundation," reflect these readings by celebrating the Church as Christ's "new creation" and rooting the community's faith in the "firm foundation" of the God's Word.

The 11:30 Mass features John Ireland's choir anthem: Greater Love Hath No Man, quoting the Second Reading from 1 Peter as its dramatic high point: Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

The communion hymn I Receive the Living God reinforces the Gospel message through its verses, which proclaim Jesus as the Bread of Life, the Way, and the Truth, set to a meditative melody arranged by Richard Proulx. At the 11:30 Mass, the Communion Meditation features Philip Stopford's lyrical anthem: Ave Maria, a contemporary, warm setting of the Marion hymn.

During the Month of May, Masses include music and hymns in honor of Mary. Sunday's final hymn is Hail Holy Queen Enthroned Above, as the closing hymn, recognizing the traditional devotion to Mary during the month of May.
