Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Welcome, Father Andy Vill!

As Father Flavian makes his way to Sacred Heart Church in Greenwich shortly after Christmas, Father Andrew Vill will make his journey to Saint Aloysius. Father Andy is a native of Ridgefield, Connecticut. He graduated from Ridgefield High School in 2006 and held off on his desire to be a chef to begin studies in Engineering at UCONN-Stamford. After a life-changing experience on an Emmaus retreat, Father Andy changed direction from engineering to philosophy when he entered St. John Fisher Seminary, Stamford in 2007 and earned his degree from Sacred Heart University in 2010. He continued his studies and priestly formation at the Pontifical North American College in Rome where he was able to live out his desire to cook in his role as head of the student kitchen. He holds a Licentiate degree in Theology with a focus on marriage and the family. Andy Vill became Father Andy Vill when he was ordained to the priesthood in 2014.

I was privileged to serve Father Andy and others as vocation director, and I was always inspired by Father Vill's energy, joy, and meaningful presence to those around him. He is a good and faithful priest whose love of the Church and understanding of the power of sacramental grace have brought many closer to Christ. When he served at St. Rose of Lima Church in Newtown, he was quoted by the local newspaper about the power of Confession and the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist:

"I don't think you can believe in the true presence of the Eucharist, that God really makes himself present in that bread and wine, until you believe that God can and does forgive sins and you have experienced his mercy in Confession…When you recognize that God has created the whole universe and can forgive you of your sins, where is the intellectual leap to say that He can't make himself present in bread and wine?"

In addition to serving in Newtown, Father Andy was parochial vicar at St. Catherine of Siena in Trumbull, the Basilica of St. John in Stamford. Recently he has been serving as parochial vicar at Sagrada Familia in Fuenlabrada in Spain. He will make his way to New Canaan in early February. Welcome, Father Andy!

In Christ,

Msgr. Rob

How Do We Forgive What We Cannot Forget?

An evening with Jennifer Hubbard

Drawing from her book Forgiving the Unforgivable, Jennifer Hubbard shares her personal journey of faith, grief, and forgiveness after losing her six-year-old daughter, Catherine, in the Sandy Hook shooting.

Through her story and Scripture, Jennifer explores what forgiveness means—and what it doesn't—offering a compassionate perspective on how forgiveness can lead to healing and peace without forgetting or excusing the past.

Music Notes for Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Dr. John Michniewicz, Director of Music

The readings for the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on waiting for the Lord with readiness and hope. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins, reminding us to keep our lamps burning as we await the Bridegroom. Wisdom is found by those who seek her, the Psalm expresses our longing for God, and St. Paul assures us of the resurrection of the dead in Christ.

Sunday's Entrance Hymn, The Church's One Foundation (Worship Hymnal No. 736), portrays the Church as Christ's holy bride, awaiting eternal peace. The Presentation Hymn, I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light (No. 585), reminds us to follow Christ, our guiding light. At the 11:30 Mass, the Choir will sing Rejoice, Rejoice, Believers, reflecting the Gospel's call to readiness.

The Communion Hymn, Psalm 23 (No. 37), draws from the appointed Communion Antiphon. At the 11:30 Mass, the Choir will also sing the spiritual My Lord, What a Morning, echoing St. Paul's reference to the trumpet of God and the resurrection.

The Final Hymn, Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory (No. 864), proclaims the coming of the Lord and echoes the trumpet imagery of the readings. With Veterans Day this week, the hymn also honors all who have served.
